

Executive Officer

Victoria Police Legacy plays a crucial role in supporting the families of deceased officers by providing financial assistance, counselling and other forms of support.

Reporting to a pro-active and dedicated board, you will have responsibility for leading, managing and developing the organisation as well as playing a significant role in representing it to serving officers, potential partner organisations, donors and other stakeholders.

On behalf of Victoria Police Legacy we are searching for a person who possesses a highly developed range of leadership, management and interpersonal skills. Demonstrated success in managing a not-for-profit organisation will be highly regarded as will a demonstrated ability to represent the agency to a diverse range of stakeholder groups.

This role offers many rewards and challenges for a person wanting to play a key role in an organisation that truly 'makes a difference'

Please forward your details by 9th August or call Peter Holdsworth confidentially for further information.
