About the Organisation

NPA Family and Community Services ATSI Corporation is a government funded, not for profit organisation situated in the scenic town of Bamaga at the very tip of Cape York Peninsula.

The organisation is focused on reducing the levels of family violence in the area, as well as improving the status and self-esteem of the community's indigenous residents. The organisation also addresses social issues and problems of domestic and family violence, child abuse and child neglect, drug and alcohol abuse, youth suicide, youth crime, teenage pregnancy and family conflicts.

NPA Family and Community Services ATSI Corporation is dedicated to providing support and encouragement to individuals to take control of their lives to develop their lifestyles into a positive outcome as well as acting as an advocate for women, children, men and family units.

About the Opportunity

The NPA Family and Community Services ATSI Corporation has an exciting and rewarding opportunity for an experienced Program Manager to join their dedicated team in Bamaga, QLD.

Reporting directly to the Chief Executive Officer, you will be responsible for the management and delivery of services of two funded health education programs - Sexual Health Awareness and Chronic Illness Reduction. Your aim will be to assist in the reduction of high statistics in relation to each program, specifically in the Northern Peninsula Area.

If you love adventure this may be the role for you. Experience working 38 hours a week in a location that provides the best the "top end" can offer. Fishing, camping, amazing wildlife, 4 wheel drive adventures, all whilst you develop and expand your career options.

NPA offers comfortable, air conditioned offices, working with a supportive team. Advancing your career is actively encouraged, with professional development, conferences / training and 2 weeks study leave per annum available to assist you.

The successful applicant will enjoy a generous salary circa $68,000 plus super. Furthermore, you will receive reimbursement for up to $2,000 relocation costs to the area, including airfares from Cairns, and fully furnished accommodation in Bamaga for $60 per week.

In reward for your hard work, you will enjoy generous leave provisions, including 4 weeks annual leave, plus 10 days over the Christmas period, and another week remote leave. On top of this, NPA will provide you with $2,000 of airfares p.a. for personal leave and 17.5% leave loading!

Please note, this is a 12 month contract with the possibility of extension.

This is a fantastic opportunity for career growth, as well as a great chance to experience Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island cultures first hand.
