

C. E. O.

❖ Human services sector

❖ North western suburbs

Established nearly 60 years ago, this organisation prides itself on delivering services which enhance the life skills of those with disabilities. It has 39 staff, 99 clients and a budget of $2.2 million.

Working with a governance board, your brief is to implement strategic objectives which improve the quality of life for your clientele. This is a hands-on role, in which community engagement, government relations and volunteering are all critical success factors.

Possessing sound business credentials and commercial acumen, you lead by example and demonstrate genuine empathy for all your stakeholders. You thrive on promoting a positive culture, based on your personal integrity, which closely aligns with the ethos of the organisation.
