

Program Manager

❖ Disability sector

❖ North-eastern suburbs

Representing the interests of national service providers in the recreation sector, this organisation has a particular commitment to delivering programs for the benefit of people with disabilities.

Answering to the CEO and backed by two staff plus numerous volunteers, your brief is to promote awareness, enhance funding streams and manage day-to-day operations.

You are qualified in a human services discipline, with a practical, “can do” attitude based on sound policy principles and familiarity with Government support mechanisms.
