

Prospect Researcher High profile capital campaign

Are you the person for a unique and exciting capital campaign role?

We are looking for a prospect researcher to support an extraordinary capital campaign.

The Victorian Comprehensive Cancer Centre Project requires philanthropic funding to be raised through a capital campaign supported by Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre, Melbourne Health, University of Melbourne
and the Ludwig Cancer Research Institute.

The project is an Australian first bringing together leading organisations in cancer research, clinical services, education and training.

This is an exciting role working with leading fundraising teams on a high profile project which aims to set new benchmarks in philanthropy in Australia.
