

Capital Campaign Fundraising Role

Call for expressions of interest and applications from Individuals or Companies

We are looking for an experienced Capital Campaign Manager or an experienced consultancy to provide capital campaign management services, for a campaign which brings together leading organisations in cancer research, clinical services, education and training.

The Victorian Comprehensive Cancer Centre Project requires philanthropic funding through a capital campaign supported by Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre, Melbourne Health, University of Melbourne and the Ludwig Cancer Research Institute.

If you believe you are the right person for the role, or your consultancy is interested in providing campaign management services, we'd like to hear from you.

Please contact
Lucy Holloway (e: Lucy.Holloway@petermac.org) for a role description or Jennifer Doubell, Executive Director,
Peter Mac Cancer Foundation (e: Jennifer.doubell@petermac.org) for further information.

Applicants or firms expressing interest should address the selection criteria and indicate expected remuneration.

The deadline for applications has been extended to COB 6 August 2010.
