

Executive Director Medical Services

- Key member of the executive team
- Salaried position with attractive remuneration
- Major facility with sophisticated amenities

Our client, Ballarat Health Service (BHS) is the major regional health service and specialist referral hospital in western central Victoria, servicing a catchment population of over 200,000 people. BHS has an annual inpatient throughput of 33,000 and around 50,000 emergency attendances. It provides a comprehensive range of acute (220 acute and 70 sub-acute beds), aged care (540 residential beds) psychiatric (81 beds) and community-based programs and services.

BHS is now seeking an Executive Director Medical Services to lead, manage and be accountable for its medical workforce. Reporting to the Chief Executive Officer, the Executive Director Medical Services has both strategic and day-to-day management responsibility for co-ordinating the activities and funding of Visiting Medical Officers, Hospital Medical Officers and salaried medical staff. As an active contributor and creative member of the Executive Team, the EDMS is expected to maintain a collaborative and professional relationship with his/her executive colleagues.

Candidates should have a medical qualification registrable in Victoria and, preferably, postgraduate Health Administration qualifications such as Fellowship of The Royal Australasian College of Medical Administrators. A most competitive remuneration package is offered and includes the option of salary packaging.

Located within a close freeway drive from Melbourne, Ballarat is a lively and prosperous rural city with a population of over 90,000. The city has sophisticated amenities; first-class education, recreation and entertainment facilities; and is central to many of Victoria's best natural attractions including the nearby Grampians region offering spectacular bushwalking, rock climbing and horse riding. The world renowned Great Ocean Road coastal district is also within one and a half hour's drive.
